Bishop Mouzon presented to Rev. W. C. Davidson, retiring presiding elder of the Monticello District, a gold-headed umbrella the gift of the preachers of the district.

Time of Meeting Fixed—

It was moved that when we adjourn, we adjourn to meet at 9 o'clock tomorrow morning.

Adjournment—

After announcements and the singing of the doxology, the Conference adjourned, with the benediction by Rev. J. L. Cannon.

THIRD DAY—MORNING SESSION.*Conference Opened—

The Conference met at 9 a. m., with Bishop E. D. Mouzon in the chair. Hymn 556 was sung; J. M. Workman led in prayer, after which the Bishop read a part of the fifteenth chapter of John's Gospel. The minutes were read, corrected, and approved.

Introduced—

The following were introduced to the Conference: S. M. Roberts, of the Pacific Conference, and R. H. Bamberg, of the Louisiana Conference.

Transfers—

Question 6, "Who are received by transfer from other Conferences?" was asked, and the Bishop announced the transfer of S. F. Goddard, elder, from the West Texas Conference; H. H. Watson, elder, from the North Arkansas Conference; R. H. Bamburg, elder, from the Louisiana Conference; J. W. Rogers, elder, from East Oklahoma Conference; H. B. Trimble, elder, from the North Arkansas Conference.

Ordination—

A. L. Miller, B. F. Roebuck, Earl C. Rule, Walter C. Scott, John A. Simpson, Hudson Christie George, and Jesse M. Hamilton were called to the chancel and, after answering the disciplinary questions, were ordained deacons.

S. B. Mann, J. L. Dedman, L. C. Gatlin, T. O. Rorie, Jr., J. W. Nethercutt, T. D. Spruce, and R. E. Farr were also called before the chancel, and, after answering the proper questions, were ordained elders.

Report—

The Board of Church Extension made its report, and the report was adopted.

Order of Day—

The order of the day having arrived, the report of the Committee on Memoirs was made, and memoirs were ordered to be inserted into the minutes without reading.

M. N. Waldrip read the train schedules to the conference.

Board of Missions—

Report number 2 of the Board of Missions and the Report of the Joint Board of Finance were read and adopted.

Sunday School Board—

Report of the Sunday School Board was read and, after being amended to include the names of the Sunday school superintendents of the banner charges mentioned therein, was adopted.

Commission on Finance—

The report of the Commission on Finance was read and, after being amended to strike out all reference to the decimal, was adopted. The committee was then instructed to bring in a report fixing the decimal for the total budget.

American Bible Society—

The report of the American Bible Society was read and, after being amended to leave out the reference to percentage, was adopted.

Presentation—

Dr. and Mrs. Monk were called to the chancel, and, on behalf of the preachers of the Little Rock District, were presented with a case of Thermos bottles by the Rev. J. D. Hammonds, on the occasion of Dr. Monk's retirement from four years on the Little Rock District.

Rev. J. A. Biggs, who retires after four years as presiding elder on the Texarkana District, was called to the chancel and presented with $10 in gold by the Rev. J. Frank Simmons as a present from the preachers of his district.

Introduced—

The following colored brethren were announced as visitors to the Conference: C. C. Neal, president of Haygood College; W. C. Smith, pastor of the local C. M. E. Church, and W. M. Herndon, presiding elder of the Little Rock District of the C. M. E. Church.

C. C. Neal spoke in the interest of the Haygood College, and a collection amounting to $73.81 was taken for this institution.

Treasurer's Report—

The treasurer's report was read and adopted.

Error Corrected—

An error in last year's minutes was noted, to wit: that A. S. Daniels was discontinued last year at his own request.

Located at Own Request—

H. L. Simpson was located at his own request.

Report—

The Report of the Commission on Finance was read and adopted.

League Board—

The Epworth League Board made its report and it was adopted.

Statistical Secretary—

The statistical secretary made his report, which was adopted. A motion to elect a statistical secretary for the next four years carried, and R. W. Huie, Jr., was elected.

Resolution of Thanks—

A resolution of appreciation was tendered to Dr. M. N. Waldrip and the people of Hot Springs for their hospitality and also to the people and pastor of Magnolia for their intended kindness to the Annual Conference, also to R. W. Huie, Jr., for his work on Henderson-Brown College financial campaign.

Introduced—

Dr. Ivan Lee Holt, of St. John's Church, St. Louis, was presented to the Conference.

Minutes Read—

The minutes were read and approved.

Question 53—

Question 53, "Where are the preachers stationed this year?"

REPORTS OF BOARDS

BOARD OF MISSIONS—REPORT NUMBER ONE.

Report Number 1.

The Methodist Episcopal Church, South, has projected a great Centenary program proposing to secure $35,000,000 within the next five years for Christianizing, not only our own country, but the world.

The proportion assigned to our Conference is $816,824.24. We are now raising from all sources approximately $60,000 per year, which in five years will amount to $300,000, which sum is credited to our Centenary apportionment, leaving only $516,824.24 to provide for. We accept the apportionment gladly, and recommend that the Little Rock Conference make its share $1,000,000 instead of $816,824.24, representing an increase of $183,175.76.

We pledge ourselves to assist our secretary, Rev. R. W. McKay, and the Centenary managers in every possible way to reach the people.

T. D. SCOTT, Chairman;
JAMES THOMAS, Secretary.

BOARD OF MISSIONS—REPORT NUMBER TWO.

Dear Fathers and Brethren:

We beg leave to submit the following report:

We have received on assessments:

Total .....	$12,277.00
-------------	-------------

Home and Conference Missions .....	$9,520.00
------------------------------------	------------

We received the report of the War Commission and we approve the administration of the fund by this Commission, and accept their recommendation, to-wit:

To turn over to the Board for the Centenary Campaign the balance of the cash in their hands, which amounts to $1,235.00.

We recommend the appointment of R. W. McKay, Conference Missionary Secretary.

We have for distribution to our Mission Field for Conference Missions the sum of $5,883.00.

The amount appropriated for printing the minutes is $110.00.

BOARD OF CHURCH EXTENSION.

To the Bishop and Members of the Little Rock Annual Conference.

Brethren: The assessment for the Board of Church Extension made by the last General Conference is a slight increase over the assessment of the last quadriennium, while some other assessments were raised materially. The assessment for our Conference for the next year, 1918-19, is $7,590.00. For the year just closed the assessment was $6,900.00.

The progress reported by the General Board of Church Extension during the last four years was greater than in any previous quadrennium in the history of the Church. The total income from all sources amounted to $2,335,144.00, being an increase over the previous quadrennium of $563,919.24. To surpass this record, which must be done, will call forth the best possible efforts of all the friends of Church Extension.

We have before us 16 applications for help in building Churches and Parsonages, totalling $3,550.00. We have considered each application carefully, in most cases having the claim presented by one or more of the brethren who were familiar with the conditions, and have endeavored to give aid to those needing help most. We regret that we cannot give aid to the full amount requested by each applicant. However, our available funds have taken care of a larger percentage of the amounts this year than usual.

We have had at our disposal this year practically the identical amount that we had last year. The amount turned in from assessments was $100.00 less, as shown in subsequent figures, but we had left on hand about $100.00 more this year than last. We are disappointed that the Horace Jewell fund has not shown an increase this year. In order to stimulate an interest in this fund we have donated $100.00 to the Horace Jewell fund. This fund now stands at $499.99, in the treasury. Mt. Carmel charge has paid an additional $25.00 on their own fund, making our total loan capital $624.24, now on deposit with the Parent Board.

We would call the attention of the presiding elders to the importance of seeing that the applications for aid are properly and completely executed, as we do not make grants where applications are not in order.

With no intention to encroach upon the duty of the Memoirs Committee, we can not refrain from expressing our feeling of great loss to our Board and Conference in the death of our most efficient secretary for the past three years, Brother W. D. Sharp.

Receipts.

We had before us Dr. O. E. Goddard, Mr. A. L. Deitrich, Dr. E. B. Chappell and Dr. J. H. Reynolds, all of whom were gladly heard and their recommendations incorporated in this report.

We tender our thanks to Dr. A. C. Millar for the large space given to the Sunday School Department in the Arkansas Methodist and urge all our Sunday School people to subscribe for this valuable paper. We also tender our thanks to the large number of friends who made special contributions to our work during the year.

In keeping with the policy of our General Sunday School Board and following the plans outlined at the Junaluska Sunday School Conference, and upon recommendation of Dr. E. B. Chappell, we recommend the holding of a Teacher Training Institute at Henderson-Brown College during the summer of 1919.

We indorse the Centenary Sunday School program and pledge ourselves to do our utmost to bring up in our Sunday Schools the apportionment of the amount assigned to our Conference. We hereby instruct our Field Secretary to co-operate with the Centenary Secretary in his work on the Centenary program in our Conference.

We urge our Field Secretary to put special emphasis on missionary education, stewardship and tithing during the Centenary campaign.

We, furthermore, urge our Field workers to put increased interest on Sunday School Extension work, seeking not only to put a Sunday School in each Church, but also to seek out and organize undeveloped territory, through co-operation with presiding elders and pastors.

We pledge the moral support of the Sunday School workers in the plan of our Church colleges to endow chairs of Sunday School pedagogy in these institutions, and especially commend the teacher-training work that is already being done in them.

The Prescott District, Rev. J. A. Henderson, presiding elder, is hereby awarded the Children's Day Banner for this year. The banner offered to the district raising the largest percentage of its apportionment is awarded to the Pine Bluff District, W. C. Watson, presiding elder. The banner Children's Day charge for districts are as follows:

Texarkana, Fouke .....	L. C. Gatlin, P. C.
Prescott Washington Circuit.....	B. E. Mullins, P. C.
Monticello, Millar Circuit .....	J. H. Cummins, P. C.
Pine Bluff, DeWitt .....	W. A. Steele, P. C.
Camden, Buena Vista Circuit .....	C. F. Messer, P. C.
Little Rock, Winfield Memorial .....	J. D. Hammons, P. C.
Arkadelphia, Hot Springs Circuit.....	J. R. Dickerson, P. C.

We have arranged with Mr. C. W. Hogan, of Little Rock, to act as Treasurer of the Board.

We have asked the Commission on Finance for an appropriation of $3,000.00 for the support of the Sunday School work for the coming year.

We have re-elected Rev. Clem Baker Field Secretary, and respectfully ask for his appointment.

C. E. HAYES, Chairman;
T. O. OWEN, Secretary.

EPWORTH LEAGUE BOARD.

We are gratified at seeing the work that has been done by the Leagues this year. The total receipts from all sources this year are $2,696.37. One thousand dollars of this amount was devoted to our African Special. Five hundred was paid on our Dierks Mission, and five hundred and fifty dollars to our rural development plan at Holly Springs and Sardis. We are very much pleased to hear of the development that has taken place in these two home fields, and we feel sure that these investments will pay us large dividends. We have apportioned at the request of the Conference League, for the coming year, four hundred and fifty dollars to be paid to Holly Springs and Sardis, two hundred and fifty dollars to Dierks, and we continue our one thousand dollars to African Special.

In the absence of T. F. Hughes and H. F. Buhler, who have been clerical members of our Board, we request the confirmation of Thornburg Workman and Walter Scott as clerical members of the Board during this Conference. We are planning intensive work in the Conference, looking to the thorough organization of our work in the field, which, we believe, will inure greatly to the benefit of our Conference church work generally by the education of our young people in such work. The Conference Committee on Finance has approved an assessment of $1,500.00 for this work. We ask for our work the prayers and active interests of our preachers in the Conference whenever they may have opportunity, feeling that our Leagues may be made one of the greatest helps to our preachers in their pastoral work, if they be properly cultivated.

W. H. KEETON, President;

W. T. MENARD, Secretary.

BOARD OF EDUCATION.

Your Board has given careful consideration to the reports and requests of the General Board of Education, of Southern Methodist University, and of our three Colleges.

We are profoundly grateful for the progress made by the educational forces of the Church during the past year and are especially grateful at the increasing usefulness of our Conference Colleges.

We recommend for adoption:

1. That our preachers give special attention during the coming year to the matter of laying upon the hearts and minds of the young men and women of the Church the obligation to preach the Gospel and to engage in missionary work.
2. That attention is hereby called to the new law, requiring all undergraduates to take their Conference studies through the Correspondence School. Undergraduates are directed to enroll immediately with the School at the Southern Methodist University, Prof. J. L. Cunningham, Director.
3. That the Conference Board of Education be hereby authorized to assist undergraduates in the matter of the fee required of the Correspondence School where necessary.
4. That we hereby give expression of our hearty agreement with the purpose to secure five million dollars for Southern Methodist University during the quadrennium, and pledge ourselves to co-operate in the efforts to secure said amount, when it is deemed wise to project a campaign. We, further, indorse the plan of the trustees of the Southern Methodist University, which is, for the ✓ Conferences in Arkansas to endow a chair in the School of Theology.
5. That Rev. S. R. Twitty and R. W. Huie, Jr., be elected members of the Commission on Religious Education in State Schools to represent the Little Rock Conference.
6. That the membership of the Board of Education in the Methodist Educational Association be hereby recognized and that the Treasurer is authorized to forward to the Treasurer of said Association the biennial membership fee of six dollars.
7. That the Conference Secretary of Education be appointed to represent the Board of Education at the next meeting of the Methodist Educational Association and that his expenses be paid by said Board.
8. That the campaign to liquidate the debt on Henderson-Brown College be continued, and that R. H. Huie, Jr., be continued as campaign manager.
9. That the following be elected to fill the vacancies on the Board of Trustees of Henderson-Brown College: C. C. Henderson, Rev. J. A. Parker and Rev. W. M. Hayes.

10. That the selection of Rev. J. H. O'Bryant and Rev. J. J. Galloway to continue the campaign to secure funds with which to complete the new building for Galloway College is hereby approved.

11. That L. B. Leigh and Rev. E. R. Steel be elected to succeed themselves as Trustees of Galloway College, and that Rev. J. D. Hammons be elected to fill the vacancy made by the transfer of Dr. Forney Hutchinson.

12. That James Thomas, in connection with F. S. H. Johnston, of the North Arkansas Conference, be continued as Commissioner of Hendrix College without salary to close up the campaign for the College.

13. That J. A. Buchanan and Forney Hutchinson be elected to succeed themselves as Trustees of Hendrix College.

14. That we hereby declare it to be the policy of this Conference to stand unswervingly for an adequately equipped as well as consecrated ministry. In securing this end, we propose the following principles for our guidance:

(1) Not to admit candidates for admission on trial into the traveling connection who present less than the four-year high school course required by the General Conference.

(2) To give financial assistance to candidates for admission on trial sufficient to enable them to secure the required training.

(3) To encourage by financial assistance and otherwise candidates to secure adequate college and theological training before entering the active ministry.

(4) The inauguration of some plan by which candidates educated for the ministry may enter into their pastoral duties immediately after the completion of their education.

15. That S. R. Twitty be appointed Conference Secretary of Education.

16. That the following assessments for education be made for the ensuing year:

Henderson-Brown College .....	$ 3,000.00
Galloway College .....	3,000.00
Hendrix College .....	3,000.00
Ministerial Education .....	1,200.00
Summer School of Theology .....	1,000.00
Incidental Expenses .....	200.00

Total .....$11,400.00

BIBLE BOARD.

The work of the American Bible Society is felt everywhere as never before:

1. It furnished 1,200,000 Testaments to our army and navy during the first year of our war against Germany, and has 1,000,000 more ready to distribute as needed.
2. The other program of the society to put Bibles in reach of the Missionaries of the world has not been neglected.
3. A total of more than 4,000,000 copies of the Scriptures have been distributed this year.

Second.

The Southwestern Agency, of which our Conference is a part, makes an excellent showing:

1. It distributed Bibles in 30 different languages.
2. It distributed in 1916, 153,055 Bibles within its territory. In 1917, it distributed 21,431 copies, which shows a gain of 68,376 books.
3. These figures are only a fragment of the activities of the Southwestern Agency. They have visited over 27,000 homes and left Bibles in 5,000 homes in which they found no Bibles at all.

Third.

The success of the Bible Society is largely due to the co-operation of ministers of the Gospel:

1. Our preachers have co-operated with the Society and with the Southwestern Agency in particular, which helps to explain the success of our colporteurs.
2. Many preachers have aided in distributing Bibles.
3. We have a depository in the Masonic Temple in Little Rock which is always prepared to furnish our people with Bibles on short notice. We commend our pastors for their zeal and activities on our behalf in the past, and look for and expect that they shall support our work in the future.
4. Brother D. H. Colquit leads all the workers of the Southwestern Agency in the number of books distributed.

J. L. CANNON, Chairman;

C. H. GOODLETT, Secretary.

REPORT OF ORPHANAGE.

Your Committee on the Orphanage has duly considered the report of the Orphanage Board, which is as follows:

The past year has been one of alternating cloud and sunshine, and while we have had much sickness, there has been no death in the Home. We had fifteen cases of influenza at one time.

Fuel conditions during the extremely cold weather were desperate and threatened to drive us from the Home, but thanks to our Heavenly Father, and some good personal friends, we secured fuel and came through with no serious results.

At the close of last year, we had in the Home thirty-five children; we received twenty and placed twenty-one during the year, leaving thirty-four in the Home on September 30. During the existence of the Home we have placed 330 children. We rejected 47 applications for children, but did not refuse admission to any orphan child.

Special gifts in money were received by Brother Thornburgh to the amount of $1,240, which makes $39,540 that he has collected and invested in the property, besides the amounts contributed annually by the Conference.

We received from the North Arkansas Conference..	$2,122.00
From the Little Rock Conference.....	2,556.00

Total.....	$4,678.00
------------	------------

We received for the care of children.....	365.00
---	--------

Grand total.....	$5,034.00
------------------	------------

Paid out for current expenses .....	$5,214.00
-------------------------------------	------------

To repay borrowed money.....	1,300.00
------------------------------	----------

Total.....	$6,514.00
------------	------------

It will be seen that the receipts were less than the current expenses, leaving a shortage of $1,480.00. We borrowed money to meet the shortage.

We regret to say that heretofore the payments from Conferences have fallen twenty-five per cent below the amounts promised. With the increased and increasing cost of living it will take all of that for current expenses, leaving nothing with which to pay the debt, which was contracted for the necessities of life. Nothing has been paid from the fund assumed by the Conferences for building or furnishings—not even for repairs, these are paid out of the special fund.

Your Committee recommends that Rev. P. C. Fletcher be elected a Trustee to fill the vacancy caused by the removal of Forney Hutchinson.

Respectfully submitted,

T. O. RORIE, President;

R. A. McCLINTOCK, Secretary.

PUBLISHING INTERESTS.

To the Bishop and Members of the Little Rock Annual Conference.

Dear Brethren: We, your Committee on Publishing Interests, beg leave to submit the following report:

Neither representatives nor communications from any of the Church publications, except the Arkansas Methodist, were before us. However, all our connectional publications are in excellent condition, and we heartily commend their editorial policies. We would urge all our pastors to take and read the Review; and an effort should be made to place the Christian Advocate in the homes of all the members of our official boards.

The report of the Arkansas Methodist Commission is very gratifying. The debts incurred in the purchase of the paper are paid. Its finances are in better condition than for many years. We recommend that an assessment of $1,000.00 be made for the paper. We commend the editorial policy and able management of Dr. A. C. Millar, and recommend his re-election as editor. We further recommend the re-election of Geo. Thornburgh, T. D. Scott and James Thomas, as Arkansas Methodist Commissioners.

We recommend the adoption of the following resolutions: Resolved, first, that in view of our Church's great program of reconstruction and in view of the great Centenary Campaign launched by our recent General Conference, special efforts be made at once to put the paper in every Methodist home.

Second, that the period from the first of January to the first of April be observed as the time for a special campaign to increase the circulation to 15,000.

Respectfully submitted,

M. K. IRVIN, Chairman;
A. M. SHAW, Secretary.

CONFERENCE JOURNALS.

The Journals for the Prescott, Little Rock, Texarkana, Monticello, Camden and Arkadelphia Districts were examined and the work found to be well and faithfully done.

Journals for Pine Bluff District were not before us.

Respectfully submitted,

S. C. DEAN, Chairman;
J. C. McELHENNEY, Secretary.

TEMPERANCE COMMITTEE.

To the Little Rock Conference.

Dear Brethren: Your Committee on Temperance respectfully reports as follows:

We heartily approve the good work of the Arkansas Anti-Saloon League in securing the very strong article of prohibition in the proposed new Constitution of the State, and its gratifying effort, preparatory to the ratification of the prohibition amendment to the Constitution of the United States. The Democratic State Convention voted unanimously in favor of the amendment, which commits the next legislature to its ratification. As a tribute to statewide prohibition, we state that the population of the state penitentiary has decreased from 1,137 January, 1915, when prohibition began, to 824 November 1, 1918, a fall of nearly 30 per cent.

We recommend that our relation be continued with the State

League by the election of Geo. Thornburgh, A. C. Millar, M. N. Waldrip, W. M. Hays and J. H. Glass as our members on the State League Board.

We rejoice in the quarter century of service of the Anti-Saloon League of America, in its leadership in the fight in the United States.

Nationally wonderful advancement has been made. Ohio, Florida, Wyoming and Nevada have just gone dry, making 32, not including Texas, where the courts have overthrown the statewide law. Minnesota also voted dry, by 16,000 majority, but it took a majority of all the votes cast at the election, which defeated the dries.

As a war measure, the Congress of the United States has provided that national prohibition shall go into effect July 1, 1919; after which liquor for beverage purposes cannot be made or sold until our troops are demobilized. On Sept. 30th, by proclamation of the President, the distilling of whiskey was stopped for food conservation, and by the same authority the brewing of beer was stopped on Nov. 30th; so that on Dec. 1st the happy era began in which there is not legally a drop of whiskey distilled or a bottle of beer brewed in this great country of ours. Permanent prohibition will be here not later than 1920, possibly in 1919, by ratification of the amendment to the national Constitution.

Only 36 states are needed for ratification; 15 have already ratified, the last being Florida. Six wet states have ratified. These with the 32 dry states will make 38 for ratification. More than that Vermont has chosen a legislature that will ratify by more than two to one. "By grace of St. Louis and San Francisco, Missouri and California remain in the wet columns, but both have elected legislatures as did Minnesota that will ratify the federal amendment. So ratification will carry in 42 states."

The November election made changes in the United States Senate which add eight more to the strength of the dries. In the House, the wet members were defeated in large numbers.

THE WET AND DRY QUESTION WAS A GREATER FACTOR IN THE RECENT ELECTION THAN APPEARS ON THE SURFACE. The Democratic and Republican parties were dry in about equal proportions, and it is a pity that either should suffer because of the question. But the Democrats were held responsible for the delay of war prohibition. Months ago, western Democrats said to the leaders of the party that the failure to enact war prohibition without delay was endangering their seats. But misleading advice was followed, with the result that Democratic majority in Congress is overturned. THE PROHIBITIONISTS DID NOT DO IT. DESPITE THE UNFAIR TREATMENT OF THEIR ISSUE, THEY KEPT HANDS OFF, BUT THE PEOPLE SERVED NOTICE ON BOTH PARTIES THAT PROHIBITION IS HERE, AND THE PARTY THAT THWARTS ITS ONWARD MARCH OR EVEN IGNORES IT MUST ABDICATE.

The year 1920 is the three hundredth anniversary of the landing of the Pilgrim Fathers, and one of the glories of that anniversary will be a saloonless nation. Not only so, but the world's going dry. A worldwide prohibition conference has just closed in Columbus, Ohio, at which plans were laid to make the American Anti-

Saloon League an international world organization. Delegates were there from across the waters. Brethren, it will succeed. The liquor traffic is a worldwide scourge and calls for a worldwide elimination. The plans of the Anti-Saloon League will insure a world conquest.

A dry United States is assured and we are going to have a dry world. If you doubt it, you inherited that doubt from your grandfather. That is what he thought about piracy on the high seas, wrong but couldn't be stopped; dueling barbarous, but couldn't be stopped; cannibalism, polygamy, lotteries, public gambling, red light districts and white slavery, all wrong, but couldn't be stopped. Most of them have been wiped off the earth; the others are going, and the liquor traffic will go, too, with all the poison drugs of nations, opium, vodka, absinthe, whiskey, wine, beer. They are doomed as Judas Iscariot, autocracy, and the Kaiser.

CONFERENCE RELATIONS.

We, your Committee, offer the following as a report:

The following were referred to us for continuation in the superannuate relation: J. E. Caldwell, H. D. McKennon, E. N. Watson, J. W. Davis, A. D. Jenkins, H. Townsend, E. Garrett, J. L. Johnston, R. J. Raiford, C. W. Drake, J. W. Williams, W. M. Crowson, J. H. Bradford, J. J. Menefee, Bro. Vantrease, Bro. Warlick, and E. F. Wilson, and the following to be placed in this relation: W. F. Laseter, W. W. Mills and B. B. Thomas. We so recommend.

The following were referred for supernumerary relations: J. W. Berry and A. C. Graham. We so recommend.

R. W. McKAY, Chairman;
L. T. ROGERS, Secretary.

LAY ACTIVITIES.

Whereas, the laymen are desirous of lending their hearty support to the Centenary drive and other activities of the Church, we therefore recommend:

First, that one day be set apart at each District Conference as "Laymen's Day," for the discussion under their direction of tithing and all phases of Christian stewardship.

Second, that the presiding elders confer with the Conference lay leader and chairman of the Centenary Commission and fix the dates of the District Conferences so that they will not conflict.

Third, that Sam T. Poe be elected as Conference lay leader.

JAS. H. WATERS, Chairman,

HISTORY COMMISSION.

The Little Rock History Commission was created by act of the Conference in 1908 to collect and preserve the Conference documents. The Commission was authorized to fill its own vacancies, and directed to report its work to the session of the Conference next following the meeting of the General Conference. We have elected J. A. Sage to the place on the Commission made vacant by the transfer of Dr. Forney Hutchinson.

We have on file in the Hendrix College library the Conference Journals from 1874 to 1917, except for the years 1898 to 1905 and 1907 to 1913. We have two bound volumes of the printed journals covering the period from 1881 to 1913; two volumes of the Conference statistics from 1890 to 1897; and two volumes of the Camden District Conference Journals from 1876 to 1904.

The filled volumes of all District Conference Journals and the Annual Conference Journal should be forwarded to the custodian at Hendrix College for safe keeping and easy reference.

The Commission offers the following resolution:

Resolved, that the Little Rock Conference will recognize as official a copy of the printed Journal carefully corrected by the secretary of the Conference.

Resolved, second, that the Conference hereby directs the secretary to have bound at the end of the quadrennium the four official journals of the quadrennium.

Resolved, third, that a bound volume of the official journals of the Conference be submitted to the General Conference for examination instead of a written journal, as heretofore.

MEMOIRS.

The Committee on Memoirs, with sadness, reports an unusual number of deaths in our Conference since our last memorial service a year ago. Six of our brothers and two of our sisters have gone to the home above: O. H. Keadle, R. L. Cabe, W. D. Sharp, R. C. Atchley, J. R. Sanders, G. M. Yearwood, Mrs. J. A. Parker, and Mrs. C. W. Drake.

Respectfully,

T. D. SCOTT,
R. W. McKAY,
W. P. WHALEY.

MRS. C. W. DRAKE.

Priscilla W. (Goodson) Drake was born Dec. 5, 1853, near Columbus, Miss. She joined the Methodist Church when she was seventeen. In her eighteenth year she was married to C. W. Drake. This happy couple became the parents of two sons and four daughters. Two of the daughters were taken from them, but the other four children were left to bless them in the evening of life.

Her husband joined the Little Rock Conference at its session in Camden in 1888. From that time until her death she was the faithful wife of a true and typical Methodist itinerant. Upon the mountain mission, down on the circuit in the swamps, or in the railroad village, she made the little parsonage a good home for her children, a blessed refuge for her husband, and a radiant center for the community. She loved Methodists, and especially Methodist preachers. She seemed happiest when some Methodist preacher sat by the fire with her husband, and she could move about the house and serve.

Her husband has been a superannuate for several years, and they have made their home in Kingsland. It seemed a joy to them that they could have a little place to call their own. They were happy in that home. They seemed to feel that they were taking a new start together in life. They had congenial neighbors, lived near the parsonage, and were convenient to church. It seemed a most ideal place to enjoy the last moon of life.

Nearly two years before her death Sister Drake suffered a complete break down, and became the helpless charge upon the tender care of her considerate husband and children. Because they could no longer keep house nor live to themselves, the home was sold and the invalid wife and mother was brought to Little Rock to the home of her daughter, Mrs. Carrie Pryor. She did not seem to suffer acutely, but she passed slowly and patiently away, breathing her last Nov. 24, 1918.

Her husband gives the most beautiful testimony of her purity, patience, devotion, gentleness, and delicate nature.

The pastors of Little Rock attended her funeral, some assisting in the service and others acting as pallbearers, and the body was laid away in Oakland. She lives on in the home above, and in the hearts of many whom she served so quietly and so well.

W. P. WHALEY.

SUSAN ELIZABETH PARKER.

Susan Elizabeth Parker died in Prescott, Ark., August 12, 1918. Her maiden name was Pinkerton, born in Howard County, Ark., January 1, 1869. She was converted at Bethel Camp Ground, in Howard County, at the age of fifteen, and joined the M. E. Church, South. She was married to J. A. Parker February 2, 1888. Four years after this marriage, Brother Parker became a Methodist preacher, and after a year in the local ranks, he joined the Little Rock Conference. It was thus, in her early womanhood, she came into the responsible position of the wife of an itinerant Methodist preacher, where for twenty-five years, in devoted and efficient service, she showed that she was worthy of the sacred trust. Her husband says that she encouraged him in becoming a preacher and joining the Conference, and was mindful of his work to the last.

The strength of her life was given in those places where service has always counted most, home and church—the two great fundamentals in the making of our civilization.

She looked well after the ways of her household. "Every wise woman buildeth her house." In everything pertaining to her home there was the evidence of a wise, constructive ability. The children were well trained, the family resources administered with intelligent frugality and her home was always sweet and restful. To her the Church was of God, and obedience to its rules and regulations vital, and attendance upon its ordinances and the support of the institutions a great privilege. Such intelligent, sympathetic and resolute spiritual leadership is a rich legacy to her five children—greater than any money value. The oldest son, Walter, is a graduate of Hendrix College and Columbia University, and is now a teacher of English in the State Normal of Missouri. The older daughter is a graduate of Henderson-Brown College, is married and living in the West, the younger daughter lacks but a little of attaining to her college degree, while the two youngest boys will, no doubt, always feel the inspiration of her noble, unselfish life. Our ministry owes more of its success to such wives and mothers than we can ever know, till revealed at the last day.

REV. ROBERT LEWIS CABE.

Robert Lewis Cabe was born in Tennessee, June 15, 1880. When about eleven years of age he moved with his parents to Arkansas and settled in Saline County, where he lived until he entered the itinerant ministry. He was converted in early life and joined the Methodist Episcopal Church, South, under the ministry of Rev. S. W. Rainey. He was educated in the common schools and in the University of Arkansas, where he spent four years a student. At the session of the Arkadelphia District Conference held at Leola in 1911 he was licensed to preach, and recommended for admission on trial in the Little Rock Conference, by which body he was admitted at the session held in Hot Springs in November of the same year.

He went forward in the Conference by regular stages, being admitted into full connection and ordained deacon by Bishop Kilgo at the session of the Conference held in Pine Bluff in 1913, and being ordained an elder by Bishop Morrison at the Conference held in Monticello in 1915.

His first appointment was to Leola Circuit, which he served for three consecutive years, and from which place he was sent to Kingsland Circuit, where he again served for three years; from Kingsland he was sent to the Hampton Circuit at the last session of our Conference. While attending this session of the Conference he contracted a violent cold which rapidly developed into a maglignant form of tuberculosis. He went home from the conference sick and really unable to go through the ordeal of moving, but with his characteristic energy and indomitable power of will he lost no time in reaching his new charge at Hampton. The good people of that place, and of the entire charge, received him with open arms and he entered upon his work full of enthusiasm and hope, feeling that his trouble was only temporary and that he would soon be well again. From the middle of December to the last of March he pressed on with his work, although he was never clear of fever for an entire day during that time, and was harassed by a most distressing cough, which gave him no rest by day or by night. Oftentimes he preached when he was compelled to cling to the pulpit for support to keep from falling from sheer weakness. The Lord seemed to draw the hearts of the people to him. In all of my experience I have never known any preacher so to win the love and confidence of the people of an entire charge in so short a time. He was anxious to go on, but friends and the physicians saw that he was compelled to stop. Acting on the very urgent counsel of his physician he gave up his work, and, with his family, left early in April for El Paso, Texas, where he hoped to find relief from the malady which was fast eating away his life.

He landed at El Paso sick, among strangers, and almost financially destitute; but his brethren of the Little Rock Conference, the people of his former charges, and many noble laymen in different parts of the Conference, freely ministered to his financial needs and many of the kind Methodist people, and others, in El Paso showed him much kindness, so that all of his real needs were fully provided for.

His health steadily declined and on the morning of August 13 he gently breathed his last and fell asleep in his Lord. His body was laid to rest, according to his own request, in the beautiful Greenwood Cemetery in that city. His funeral services were conducted by Rev. C. K. Campbell, pastor of Asbury Methodist Episcopal Church, South, in El Paso, to whom the friends of Brother Cabe are greatly indebted for his unfailing attention and abundant brotherly kindness towards him and his family.

Writing of his last illness and death Brother Campbell says: "I was most deeply impressed by his sweet and un-murmuring submission to the Divine Will. He wanted to get well, he hoped to live. That was the burden of my last conversation which I had with him before going away for my short vacation. But when I returned all was changed. He realized that he could not get well, that God's will was otherwise. He calmly talked over all necessary arrangements with his wife and set his face towards the Eternal City. There was not the slightest note of repining or questioning of the Divine Will. A few hours before his death I called at his home, and, at his request, gathered the family around his bed for a final service of prayer. After reading the 10th chapter of Revelation, I knelt with that sorrowing family circle and poured out my soul in prayer as best I could. When I left, I asked him if the way was all clear before him. 'Oh, yes,' he replied, 'it is all right. I wanted to get well, but God knows best.'"

Robert Lewis Cabe was a man of clean lips, pure heart and blameless life. No whiter soul has ever been admitted to our itinerant brotherhood. He was a diligent student, a careful and thoughtful preacher, who brought no unbeaten oil into the sanctuary; a wise and faithful shepherd of the flock of Christ. He was gentle yet courageous, modest yet confident of his powers, kind yet firm in his adherence to the right as he saw it. He was never boisterous or demonstrative, yet he had a deep and genuine religious experience and the most positive religious convictions. He sincerely loved his brethren of the Conference and was loved and honored by them. Truly may it be said, he was a good man.

He was married to Miss Sarah Della Hope, October 8, 1905. Seven children were born to their union—the last two being twin boys, who were born just a few weeks before their father's death. All are still living, having returned to their former home at Benton, Ark. They shall have an abiding place in the hearts of his brethren, and will not be forgotten by the Little Rock Conference.

J. A. SAGE.

REV. R. C. ATCHLEY.

Rev. Robert C. Atchley was born in Colvert Township, Saline County, now Grant County, September 26, 1839. He was converted in 1852 under the ministry of Rev. H. R. Withers; was licensed to exhort on October 8, 1857, and was licensed to preach at Union Springs Academy, on the Lehigh Circuit, September 25, 1858. Rev. A. R. Winfield, P. E., and S. Treadwell, secretary.

Brother Atchley was married to Miss Cornelia J. Anderson, February 13, 1862, and to this union were born ten children, six of whom are living. Brother Atchley was married the second time to Miss Pauline Harrison, March 5, 1912, who, with the six living children, mourn his departure. He was received on trial in the Ouachita (now the Little Rock) Conference, held at Arkadelphia in November 1858, Bishop Early presiding, and was appointed as junior preacher on the Lehigh Circuit under Rev. A. L. P. Green, who failed to go, and Rev. C. Pope took his place. He served the Red Fork Circuit in 1861, and the Center Point Circuit in 1862 and 1863, and the Rondo Circuit in 1864.

Brother Atchley went to the Arkansas Conference and served in the regular work for several years, and came back to the Little Rock Conference and served the Malvern, Lono and Princeton circuits. Also, he served Arkadelphia Station at one time, but I do not know the dates.

On account of his throat he asked for the superannuate relation some 25 years ago, and settled down at Dalark to spend the remainder of his life, which came to a close February 22, 1918. His funeral was conducted February 24 in the Methodist Church in Dalark by the pastor, assisted by the presiding elder, and his mortal remains were laid to rest in the Dalark cemetery by the side of his first wife to await the resurrection morn.

Thus ends one of the most beautiful lives that it has been my privilege to know. This writer has known Brother Atchley for 35 years or more, he having been my pastor for some six years, and to say he was a good man is not enough. He was one of the best men I ever knew. I believe, this good man had as much or more to do to help me in forming my ideals in life than any one man. One stood up at his funeral and said: "Anyone would know that Brother Atchley was truly a good man, just to know his children." I am sure this is true. This community has sustained a great loss. Several times I visited his home since I became his pastor, and I always found him on the sunny side of life. His sunshiny face always cheered those with whom he came in contact. It was a benediction to be in his presence, and it was an inspiration to have him in the congregation while preaching. I am sure that every preacher who has been on the Dalark Circuit since Brother Atchley has lived here will bear testimony to that fact.

He "served his day and generation well by the will of God," and as one of the old prophets said, "He was not, for God took him." He was well almost to the last moment, and just quit breathing, and thus ended his life, without a struggle, and went home to God. So we know where to find this good man. "Blessed are the dead which die in the Lord from henceforth; yea, saith the Spirit, they shall rest from their labors and their works do follow them." God bless the bereaved ones. His pastor, T. H. CROWDER.

REV. O. H. KEADLE.

Oliver Hazard Keadle was born at Scottsville, Bibb County, Alabama, July 18, 1848, and died at his home in Lonsdale, Arkansas, April 25, and was buried by his brethren in the Methodist ministry from Central Methodist Church at Greenwood Cemetery, Hot Springs, Saturday afternoon, April 27, 1918.

He moved with his mother to Sevier County, Arkansas, when a small boy, and was married the first time to Miss Laura J. Chilcote June 15, 1865. To this union nine children were born, three survive him, two daughters and one son; Mrs. C. C. Butler, Hot Springs; Mrs. Etta Kirby, Little Rock; and Oliver H. Keadle, Jr., Pine Bluff. Sister Keadle passed away September 28, 1910, and Brother Keadle was united in marriage the second time to Mrs. M. F. Flemmons, Lonsdale, (nee) Miss Vera Spence of Quitman, Ark., on May 21, 1914.

In 1868 he and his wife joined the Methodist Episcopal Church, South, and in 1877 he was granted license to preach.

At the session of the Little Rock Conference held at Prescott November 24-29, 1880, he was sent by Bishop Geo. F. Pierce as supply to the Saline Circuit. He was ordained local deacon at Pine Bluff by Bishop H. N. McTyeire, December 14-19, 1881.

He was admitted on trial with a class of 10 others, at the Conference held at Hope November 22-27, 1882, and sent by Bishop A. W. Wilson to the Caddo and Crystal Springs Circuit.

From the Conference held at Malvern, November 28-December 3, 1883, he was sent by Bishop J. C. Granbery to the Cedar Glades Circuit. At Little Rock, November 26-December 1, 1884, he was assigned to the Fulton Circuit by Bishop R. K. Hargrove. At Arkadelphia December 2-7, 1885, under the presidency of Bishop J. C. Granbery he was received into full connection and sent to Buckner Charge by Bishop Charles B. Galloway. At Little Rock, December 7-12, 1887, he was ordained elder and sent by Bishop Galloway to Bartholomew Circuit. November 21-26, 1888, at Camden he was reassigned to the Bartholomew Circuit by Bishop Joseph S. Key. At the Conference held at Pine Bluff by Bishop E. R. Hendrix, November 21-26, 1889, I do not know his assignment as I have no Journal for that year. But at Monticello Bishop O. P. Fitzgerald sent him to Dalark Circuit December 3-8, 1890.

At Arkadelphia December 2-7, 1891, he was assigned by Bishop Wallace W. Duncan to Collegeville Circuit. At the Conference at Magnolia December 7-11, 1892, presided over by Bishop A. W. Wilson, he was superannuated, but at the Conference held at Hot Springs December 5-11, 1893, he was sent by Bishop J. C. Keener to Kingsland Circuit. At Prescott December 13-17, 1894, he was sent by Bishop Hendrix to White River Circuit, to which appointment he was reassigned by Bishop A. G. Haygood at Lonoke, December 5-10, 1895. At Camden December 3-7, 1896, he was sent by Bishop Key to Sheridan Circuit. At the Conference held at Pine Bluff December 1-6, 1897, he was sent by Bishop Hendrix to the Rison Circuit.

At the Conference held at Little Rock November 23-28, 1898, Bishop H. C. Morrison presiding, he took a superannuate relation and at the Conference held at Fordyce November 22-27, 1898, under the presidency of Bishop Galloway he was continued in this relation. But at Hot Springs November 21-26, 1900, he returned to the effective list, and was sent by Bishop Galloway to the Chidester Circuit, to which he was reappointed by Bishop Key at Hope November 26-30, 1901. From Benton, November 25-30, 1902, Bishop Hoss sent him to the Snyder Circuit and at El Dorado November 25-30, 1903, under Bishop Hoss, he again took a superannuated relation, but became effective at Texarkana December 7-12, 1904, and was sent by Bishop Key to Macon Circuit. At Camden November 29-December 5, 1905, he was sent by Bishop Galloway to Sherrill Circuit, but at the Conference held at Warren November 28-December 3, 1906, by Bishop James Atkins, because of continued ill health he was enrolled upon the permanent honor roll of the Conference veterans and continued this relation until the day of his translation.

He was a good man of whom it may be truly said, to know him was a high privilege, to love him was a necessity and to honor such a man was a pleasure unspeakable. May Heaven's blessings be upon his faithful wife and devoted children.

REV. WATSON D. SHARP.

We are never quite prepared for the death of kindred or friends. Even if they have lingered long upon the brink of the river and we have been expecting them to go over, their departure is sure to be just a moment not looked for, and there is distinct surprise at the word that they have gone. But the message that W. D. Sharp, our pastor at Junction City, was instantly killed by lightning in his back yard on the afternoon of August 16 brought an exceedingly painful shock to all who knew him.

Watson D. Sharp was born at Droope Mountain, in West Virginia, October 1st, 1872; so he lacked a little of being forty-six years old. He grew up in a religious home; he was licensed to preach at Burnsville, W. Va., May 21, 1897; ordained deacon at Abbingdon, Va., October 1, 1904; received on trial in the Holston Conference in 1904, and appointed to the Nollichucky Circuit, where he served one year; appointed to Bull's Gap, Tennessee, in 1905, and served three years as pastor of the church and principal of McKinley Memorial Institute, which was under the control of our church; appointed to Bland, Va., in 1908, where for two years he was pastor of the church and principal of the high school.

In July, 1910, Bishop Candler transferred him to the Little Rock Conference to take charge of the Mena-Hendrix Academy; but the buildings were lost by fire in a few weeks after his arrival and were not rebuilt. Consequently the school was not reopened, and Brother Sharp was not allowed to follow his inclination to school work, for which he came to Arkansas. That fall he was appointed to Washington Circuit and served two years. In 1912 he was appointed to Waldo Circuit, where he served two years; in 1914 he was stationed at Junction City, where he was closing his fourth year of a successful and appreciated ministry.

The first two years of his pastorate at Junction City he successfully edited the weekly newspaper, and made it helpful to both his church and the community. In 1917 many of the best citizens urged him to become a candidate for mayor of the city. He consented and was elected without opposition. So faithfully and successfully did he discharge the duties of his office that he was re-elected without opposition in 1918. But he did not allow these extra duties to interfere with his duties as a Methodist preacher. He maintained a good hold upon his congregation and cleared the beautiful church building of a heavy and embarrassing debt.

Brother Sharp was a quiet and unobtrusive man. Such men come slowly but surely into recognition. He was studious and thoughtful. He read the papers and magazines, and had a good library. He was painstaking in the preparation of his sermons, and his preaching was effective. He usually held his own revival services and often conducted very successful meetings for his brother pastors. At the time of his death he was a member of the examining committee for the class of the second year. Four years ago the Conference Board of Church Extension elected him secretary, the duties of which office he efficiently performed until his death.

His translation was sudden and in a chariot of fire, but he left all his interests here in good condition, and his new appointment is in Heaven. If he could have foreseen his departure in time to have made provision for his loved ones, doubtless he would have left them where they are—in the hearts of his brethren in the Little Rock Conference. May they never lose the assurance of our sympathy, our prayer, our love and our brother.
